

Our Country- India

Fill in the blanks: -

1. Arabian Sea is in the _____ and Bay of Bengal is in the _____ of India.
2. Mainland of India extends between _____ and _____ latitudes and; _____ and _____ longitudes.
3. The local time changes by _____ minutes for every degree of longitude.
4. The sun rises about _____ hours earlier in _____ than in _____.
5. _____ longitude has been termed as the Standard Meridian of India.
6. _____ joins India with Sri Lanka.
7. Himalaya means _____.
8. The world's highest peaks are located in _____ range.
9. Western Ghats are also known as the _____.
10. _____ are also known as the coral islands.

Define the following: -

Peninsula- _____

Alluvial deposits- _____

Tributary- _____

Write short answers: -

Why do large countries have multiple time zones?

Name the countries which share the boundaries with India.

What is Standard Meridian of India and why it has been taken as Indian Standard Time?

Write a short note on Sundarbans delta.

Write a short note on Northern Indian Plains.

Name two western flowing rivers which drain into Arabian Sea.

Write a short note on the Peninsular Plateau.

Name the three hill ranges in the Peninsular Plateau.

Name the four east flowing rivers.

Write the points of difference between the Eastern and the Western Ghats.

Name the island which are part of Indian territory.

Write true or false and correct the incorrect statement: -

The Eastern Ghats are continuous and the Western Ghats are uneven and broken.

Middle Himalayas are also known as Shivaliks.

Ganga and Brahmaputra rivers flow into the Arabian Sea.

PracticeNLearn.com