

Animals- Living and Surviving

The Explorer's Sheet

Explore and answer: -

Describe the role of a terrestrial animal in its ecosystem. Choose one animal and explain how it contributes to its habitat.

How do terrestrial animals depend on plants for survival? Provide examples of plant-animal interactions.

Explain the concept of a food chain involving terrestrial animals. Draw and label a simple food chain with three different organisms.

How do migratory birds navigate during long-distance migrations? Discuss their migration routes and the factors that influence their migration patterns.

How do aerial animals such as vultures and eagles play important roles in their ecosystems? Discuss their feeding habits and ecological contributions.

Discuss human impacts on aerial animals and their habitats. How can we help conserve aerial species?

Humans have learnt and adopted a lot from nature. Search what is bio mimicry and how humans are adopting it to design mesmerizing designs.