

Transport and Communication

Fill in the blanks: -

1. Metalled roads are made up of _____, _____ and _____.
2. Early humans travelled on _____ before the invention of wheel.
3. Villages have _____ roads.
4. _____ and _____ travel at the speed of 120-130 kilometers per hour.
5. _____ are used to transport petroleum and oil.
6. _____ is the fastest mode of transport.
7. _____ is the cheapest mode of transport.
8. _____ is the most well-connected mode of transport.
9. India has _____ major and _____ minor ports.
10. _____ are used in areas difficult to reach and rescue people during natural disasters.

Define the following: -

Communication- _____

Transport- _____

Metalled roads- _____

Un-metalled roads- _____

National highways- _____

State highways- _____

Steam engines- _____

Metro trains- _____

Perishable goods- _____

Elevated roads- _____

Underground roads- _____

Passenger ships- _____

Cargo ships- _____

Tanker ships- _____

Speed Post- _____

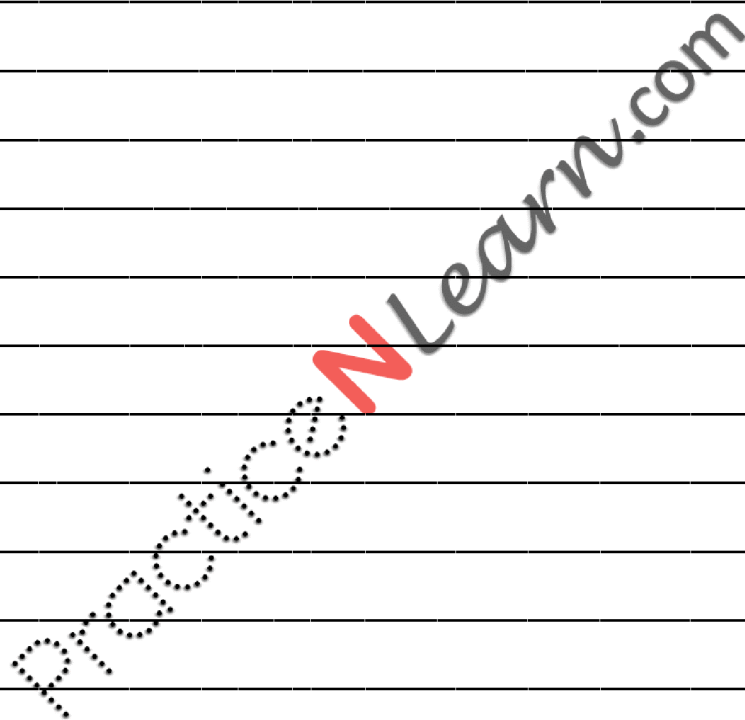

India Post- _____

Fax- _____

Internet- _____

Email- _____

Apps- _____

Social networking sites- _____

Write short answers: -

What was the mode of transport for early humans?

Name a few luxury trains of India.

Name the means of mass communications.

Why is a radio more popular means of communication than a newspaper or a magazine?

Name two major ports of India.

What is the use of helicopters?

What are the benefits of cinema?

Write true or false and correct the incorrect statement: -

- Transport is used to carry only people from one place to another.
- Perishable goods are transported by ships.
- The hobby of collecting postcards is called philately.
- A fax machine is connected to an email ID.
- To send an email, we need a to go to a post office.

Recognise the pictures: -

