

Passage Comprehension- 9

Grade 3

The School Play

Marcus felt nervous about performing in his first school play. He practiced his lines every evening, using different voices for his character. His sister Emma helped by listening and giving him tips. On the day of the play, the auditorium was filled with excited parents and students. When Marcus walked onto the stage, he remembered all his practice and delivered his lines perfectly. The audience clapped loudly, and his drama teacher gave him a high five afterward.
