

Identification and Conversion of Sentences

Grade 5

Exercise 1: Instructions: Use each of the following phrases to make a complete, meaningful sentence.

1. in the garden

2. as soon as possible

3. once upon a time

4. on the top shelf

5. during the summer vacation

6. without any hesitation

7. before the sunset

8. under the big tree

9. in spite of the rain

10. between the two buildings

Exercise 2: Rearrange the jumbled words to make meaningful sentences. Then identify the type of sentence (declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory).

1. library books the many has

2. game did the win who

3. carefully instructions the follow

4. birthday happy what party a

5. tomorrow picnic going we are on a

6. delicious how food the is

7. completed you have homework your

8. immediately here come

9. mountains highest the world in the are which

10. always truth speak the

Exercise 3: Read each sentence carefully and identify whether it is declarative, interrogative, imperative, or exclamatory.

1. Do you enjoy reading storybooks?

2. The Taj Mahal is located in Agra.

3. What a marvelous performance that was!

4. Please submit your assignments by Friday.

5. How did you solve this difficult problem?

6. The children are playing in the park.

7. Never tell a lie to your parents.

8. What a beautiful rainbow in the sky!

9. The Earth revolves around the Sun.

10. Could you please pass me that book?

Exercise 4: Complete each sentence with suitable words to make it meaningful. The type of sentence required is mentioned in brackets.

1. The students _____ (Declarative)

2. _____ you like to drink? (Interrogative)
3. Please _____ (Imperative)
4. What a _____ (Exclamatory)
5. My teacher _____ (Declarative)
6. When will _____ (Interrogative)
7. Always _____ (Imperative)
8. How _____ (Exclamatory)
9. Birds _____ (Declarative)
10. Why don't _____ (Interrogative)

Exercise 5: Change each sentence to the type mentioned in brackets.

1. The weather is pleasant today. (Change to interrogative)

2. Did you complete your homework? (Change to declarative)

3. Please close the window. (Change to declarative)

4. What a beautiful painting this is! (Change to declarative)

5. She sings very well. (Change to exclamatory)

6. Can you help me with this problem? (Change to imperative)

7. The flowers smell sweet. (Change to interrogative)

8. Clean your room now. (Change to interrogative)

9. How smartly she answered all questions! (Change to declarative)

10. The train arrives at 5 p.m. (Change to imperative)

Exercise 6: Punctuate the following sentences and rewrite them correctly.

1. the boy is playing cricket in the ground

2. what is your name

3. rohit and rahul are best friends

4. please help me to solve this problem.

5. the himalayas are in the north of india

6. how beautiful the garden looks

7. sita lives in delhi

8. where do you live

9. what a nice dress

10. elephants are the largest land animals

Exercise 7: Create appropriate sentences for the following situations. Mention the type of sentence you've created.

1. Asking someone for directions to the library

2. Telling someone about your favorite hobby

3. Expressing excitement about winning a prize

4. Instructing someone to be quiet in a library

5. Inquiring about someone's health

6. Stating a scientific fact

7. Showing surprise at an unexpected gift

8. Giving advice to a friend

9. Asking about someone's plans for the weekend

10. Expressing admiration for a beautiful painting

Practice N Learn.com

Exercise 1: Make sentences using the given phrases

(Sample answers - students' answers may vary)

1. The children were playing in the garden.
2. Please complete your assignment as soon as possible.
3. Once upon a time, there lived a kind king.
4. I kept the dictionary on the top shelf.
5. We visited our grandparents during the summer vacation.
6. She accepted the challenge without any hesitation.
7. We should return home before the sunset.
8. The students sat under the big tree for the storytelling session.
9. We continued our journey in spite of the rain.
10. The small park is located between the two buildings.

Exercise 2: Unjumble the words and make meaningful sentences

1. The library has many books. (Declarative)
2. Who did win the game? (Interrogative)
3. Follow the instructions carefully. (Imperative)
4. What a happy birthday party! (Exclamatory)
5. We are going on a picnic tomorrow. (Declarative)
6. How delicious the food is! (Exclamatory)
7. Have you completed your homework? (Interrogative)
8. Come here immediately. (Imperative)
9. Which are the highest mountains in the world? (Interrogative)
10. Always speak the truth. (Imperative)

Exercise 3: Identify the type of sentence

1. Interrogative
2. Declarative
3. Exclamatory
4. Imperative
5. Interrogative
6. Declarative
7. Imperative
8. Exclamatory
9. Declarative
10. Interrogative

Exercise 4: Complete the sentences

(Sample answers - students' answers may vary)

1. The students are working hard for their exams. (Declarative)
2. What would you like to drink? (Interrogative)
3. Please keep quiet in the library. (Imperative)
4. What a beautiful scenery this is! (Exclamatory)
5. My teacher explains the concepts clearly. (Declarative)
6. When will the results be announced? (Interrogative)
7. Always speak the truth. (Imperative)
8. How wonderfully she sings! (Exclamatory)
9. Birds build nests on trees. (Declarative)
10. Why don't you join us for dinner? (Interrogative)

Exercise 5: Change the type of sentence

1. Is the weather pleasant today? (Interrogative)
2. I completed my homework. / You completed your homework. (Declarative)
3. I closed the window. / The window is closed. (Declarative)
4. This is a beautiful painting. (Declarative)
5. What a wonderful singer she is! / How well she sings! (Exclamatory)
6. Help me with this problem. (Imperative)
7. Do the flowers smell sweet? (Interrogative)
8. Have you cleaned your room? (Interrogative)
9. She answered all questions smartly. (Declarative)
10. Arrive at the station by 5 p.m. / Make sure to arrive by 5 p.m. (Imperative)

Exercise 6: Identify errors and correct the sentences

1. The boy is playing cricket in the ground. (Capital letter at beginning, period at end)
2. What is your name? (Capital letter at beginning, question mark at end)
3. Rohit and Rahul are best friends. (Capital letters for names, period at end)
4. Please help me to solve this problem. (This sentence is actually correct but ideally should have a period at the end)
5. The Himalayas are in the north of India. (Capital letters for proper nouns, period at end)
6. How beautiful the garden looks! (Capital letter at beginning, exclamation mark at end)
7. Sita lives in Delhi. (Capital letters for proper nouns, period at end)
8. Where do you live? (Capital letter at beginning, question mark at end)
9. What a nice dress! (Capital letter at beginning, exclamation mark at end)
10. Elephants are the largest land animals. (Capital letter at beginning, period at end)

Exercise 7: Create sentences based on given situations

(Sample answers - students' answers may vary)

1. Could you please tell me the way to the library? (Interrogative)
2. I enjoy playing chess in my free time. (Declarative)
3. Wow! I can't believe I won the first prize! (Exclamatory)
4. Please maintain silence in the library. (Imperative)
5. How are you feeling today? (Interrogative)
6. Water boils at 100 degrees Celsius. (Declarative)
7. What a wonderful surprise this gift is! (Exclamatory)
8. Always think before you speak. (Imperative)
9. What are your plans for the weekend? (Interrogative)
10. How beautifully this painting captures the sunset! (Exclamatory)