Matter: Solids. Liquids & Gases

Explorer's sheet

- 1. Why does a painter use turpentine oil to remove paint from his hands?
- 2. Make a list of gases which can be dissolved in water?
- 3. Makes a list of gases which cannot be dissolved in water?
- 4. Make a list of a few physical changes happening around you.
- 5. Make a list of few chemical changes happening around you.

Study the following pictures and answer the questions given below.

a. In the above picture, identify the two processes which are involved in the change of state of matter.

b. With reference to the above comic strip, how will the changes in the states of matter contribute to the water cycle?

www.practicenlearn.com